

Subject: Just one woman's opinion
Date: Tuesday, June 5, 2007 2:24 PM
From: Joyce Warriner

Dear committee members;

I would like to respectfully voice my concern regarding your upcoming process to evaluate many of the test validation methods.

With the current state of animal-free testing methods, I would ask that you consider adopting more of the many internationally validated non-animal test procedures.

Please be a leader in the move towards more modernized and accurate testing methods.

It's good science and good humanitarianism.

Thank you for listening,
Joyce Warriner